Dear Parents and Carers

I am writing to share with you the news that I will be leaving The Becket School at the end of this school year to take up the position of Chief Executive Officer for the Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Multi Academy Trust. As you may be aware, this new Trust will join together all the Catholic primary and secondary schools in Nottingham and Nottinghamshire – 21 schools in total. It is a real privilege to be leading and shaping this new CMAT, which will bring all of our Catholic schools closer together, so that we can share our best practice with each other and support each other, where needed.

It has been a great honour to have been Headteacher at The Becket school over the past 6 years. The staff, students and Governors, past and present, have been wonderful people to work with and I will always have very fond memories of my time leading this amazing school. However, this CEO role offers me the opportunity to shape Catholic education in this part of the Diocese across so many schools.

Of course, I will still be heavily involved in the work of The Becket School in my new role and will undoubtedly see many of you at school events. In the meantime, I will continue to work to ensure the very best Catholic education for all in our community.

I would like to thank you all for all the support you have given me during my headship and to wish you a happy, peaceful and very holy Christmas.

Yours faithfully

James McGeachie
Headteacher
